

The NAVTECH logo is displayed in a bold, blue, sans-serif font. The letters are spaced out and set against a white rectangular background. Behind this background, a faint, stylized globe with latitude and longitude lines is visible, rendered in shades of blue and purple.

NAVTECH

Presentation to

AGIFORS

Derek Dawson

April 30, 2001

Navtech Overview

- 110 Airline Customers in 26 Countries
- 90 persons located in North America and Europe
- Focused on Flight Dispatch and Preferential Bidding
- Customers include Atlas, American Transair, Polar, UPS, NWA
- Integrated, best of breed systems complemented by a unique architecture and true 24/7 support

Navtech Strategy

To Be the Premiere Supplier of Integrated Flight Operations
Solutions to the Airlines of the World Backed By Superior
Support

Product Strategy

Partners

- RM Rocado
- Lockheed Martin
- Universal Weather and Aviation

CLASS and CLASS*Bid*

- Legal, operational, efficient schedules
- Schedules custom built to crew bids
- Improve work coverage
- Improve crew quality-of-life

CLASS Advantages

- Multi pass
- High crew member satisfaction
- Bid sensitive stacking
- Covers all the work
- SWAP / Shuffle

CLASS BENEFITS

TO THE CREW MEMBER

- Unique reasons report
- Reasons report provides detailed reconciliation of bid to awarded schedule
 - Facilitates crew acceptance of system
 - Minimize crew call

Visit Us....

At the Booth

Or

In the Mallorca Room

